

I have been reading that the FCC is about to make major changes in the rules affecting the ownership of the news media, and that at this time the details are being kept secret from its own commissioners as well as the general public. This is outrageous in a country that just fought a war to end such practices in another country! Don't let special interests DICTATE the work of the FCC!